Joanne Greenberg will lead a community discussion entitled: "Who's a Jew? What's a Jew? ...and Do We Care?"

DATE: Sunday, March 14, 2010
PLACE: Mt. Vernon Country Club
TIME: Brunch: 10:30 AM
Program: 11:30 AM - 1:00 PM
PRICE: $25 adults; $12 ages 11 and younger.
Payable to CBE by PayPal or check to CBE (with this form)

Description of program: Before the existence of the State of Israel, we were a subculture. When we got our own place, everything changed. Why did it become necessary to decide who's a Jew? ... and more.

Join in this lively community presentation about Jewish heritage and how we have become who we are. A program for you, your friends and family members, Jewish or not, ages 10 and up!

About Joanne: Joanne Greenberg, is a founder and active member of Beth Evergreen and the author of 18 books. Joanne writes daily; tutors in Latin and Hebrew; and teaches cultural anthropology and fiction writing at the Colorado School of Mines. She is a frequent participant in writers' seminars and workshops all over the country, and has conducted classes in writing for military personnel in Japan. Her speaking engagements include, but are not limited to, schools, library associations, and book groups. In addition, she performs as a storyteller, helping to keep this art -- and the stores--alive.

Joanne will also be signing her new book: Miri Who Charms. A limited number of copies will be available for sale at the event.
